

Towards the Definition of the Integrated Human Sciences

The Integrated Human Sciences Program for Cultural Diversity (IHS) is the program initiated in 2013 for new graduate education by the Graduate School of Arts and Sciences and the Interfaculty Initiative in Information Studies/Graduate School of Interdisciplinary Information Studies of the University of Tokyo.

In this symposium, achievements and problems of the program for the past two years will be reflected on and examined for the future developments of the program.

Program students, staff and faculty members, and international mentors of the IHS program will take part in the symposium.
